Good morning, Tessa

I trust this message finds you well.

My name is Ms. Sinenhlanhla Khathi, Director of Juba Skills Development Academy. I am writing to formally request the will letters for the marketing students, the letters you sent contains students that are no longer a part of the program only three were correct, the rest were removed due to missing documents. Please find the details of all students we are hosting. I will appreciate it if you assist me with these letters today as we are running out of time.

Second matter I got communication from your students that the department is requesting proof that the students. I confirm that the following students have been shortlisted for participation in our upcoming Skills Development Programme, funded by the MICT SETA. They started Monday (17/11/2025) their program will be running for 6 months, expected completion date (May 17, 2026).
